

Take You Over (Alessandro Calemme Remix)

Bleona

You don't understand that my class is bigger than my ass
And my money's like my french, it's next to perfect
You don't understand that my lips are really meant to kiss And my stronger side resist what I really want to do
And that's you
Yeah
And that's you
If I take your last breath
If I hold you captive
Put your hands in the air
And surrender
And let my love take you over, over wow
Let my love take you over, over wow (Take you over, I let my love take you)
You don't understand you in my space could make me catch a case
So, just get up of my face
For you really love me
You don't understand that my sex, it's not what comes next
It's the fuc*ing of your mind, that gets me excited
With you
Yeah
With you
If I take your last breath
If I hold your captive
Put your hands in the air
And surrender
And let my love take you over,over wow
Let my love take you over, over wow (Take you over, I let my love take you)
