Won'T Run Away ('99 Remix)

Sandra

I won't run away from you
And I won't try to hide myself
For one more timeSo many people come and go
They can be mean but they won't showSmilin to all you've said
Talking behind your back
But I won't care forevermoreWhen I'm feelin like a stranger
Lost in the universe
When it's cold
I know you'll come and warm my heartI won't run away from you
And I won't try to hide myself
For one more time
Won't you please
Please tell me who I am
Cause I can only feel myself
When you are mineSo many people interfere
They know it all and disappearThey didn't know a thing
Wonders are happening
They said our love won't find a wayWhen you're feelin like a stranger
Lost in the universe
I'll be there
It doesn't matter where you areI won't run away from you
And I won't try to hide myself
For one more time
Won't you please
Please tell me who I am
Cause I can only feel myself
When you are mine
