So Afraid

Sylver

As you look in his eyes
The shame looks with you
Like a stain on your soul
Whatever you doAnd he tries to deny
The doubt in his mind
To keep you by his side
He'd rather be blindTell me all of your dreams
Your hopes and your fears
Let me walk through your mind
And dry all your tearsChorus
So afraid of yourself
Afraid of the day
When you have to decide
To go your own wayOn the verge of destruction
You're cursing the wreckage of your weak heartChorus
So afraid of yourselfs
Afraid of the day
When you have to decide
To go your own way
