

So Afraid

Sylver

As you look in his eyes
The shame looks with you
Like a stain on your soul
Whatever you do And he tries to deny
The doubt in his mind
To keep you by his side
He'd rather be blind Tell me all of your dreams
Your hopes and your fears
Let me walk through your mind
And dry all your tears Chorus
So afraid of yourself
Afraid of the day
When you have to decide
To go your own way On the verge of destruction
You're cursing the wreckage of your weak heart Chorus
So afraid of yourselves
Afraid of the day
When you have to decide
To go your own way
