

I Had My Chance

George S. Clinton & Morphine

I had my chance and I let it go
I had my chance and I let it go
Well, if I ever have myself another chance like that
I'm gonna grab it and I won't look back
I'm gonna grab it and I won't look back Sometimes I'm too careful
I walk just like I'm carrying a hand grenade
It's going tick, tick, tick, tick, tick
Tick, tick, tick, tick, tick
Ticking in my hand
It's going tick, tick, tick, tick
Ticking in my hand
Tick, tick ticking in my hand
And if I ever have myself another chance like that
I'm gonna grab it and I won't look back
Yea, if I ever have myself another chance like that
I'm gonna grab it and I won't look back
I'm gonna grab it and I won't look back
