Snowbird

Perry Como

Snowbird, come fly away with me, with meBeneath this snowy mantle cold and clean
The unborn grass lies waitin for its coat to turn to green
The snowbird sings the song he always sings
And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in springWhen I was young, my heart was young then too
Anything that it would tell me, thats the thing that I would do
But now I feel such emptiness within
For the thing I want the most in life is the thing that I cant winSpread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you where it came from on that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could, you know, that I would fly away with youThe breeze along the river seems to say
That shell only break my heart again, should I decide to stay?
So little snowbird take me with you when you go
To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flowSpread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you where it came from on that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could, you know, that I would fly away with youThe breeze along the river seems to say
That shell only break my heart again, should I decide to stay?
So little snowbird take me with you when you go
To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flowIf I could, you know that I would fly away with you
Snowbird, come fly away with me, with me
Little snowbird, come fly away with me, with me
Little snowbird, come fly away
