We Were Wrong

Stroke 9

Well I'm singing this song as loud as I can
As I drive too fast with my best friend
I don't wonder if you're wondering where I am
Cause I don't care if I ever see you again
Well I'm sick of being compared to what you had before
I'm sick of being what you don't want anymore
I'm sick of being used, bruised, and ignored
Because that's just not what friends are forYou were wrong
For me you were so wrong
I'd only come over to get it on
Well I've got to admit that it's time to move onDon't give me shit, don't give me lip
Don't make me lose my grip on everything that I've known all alongWell I wasted two years trying to make you mine
Then I wasted two more as I missed every sign
That you weren't what you seemed like you were which is fine
Cause I don't know who I am most of the time
But what I do know I can't show for fear that I'll throw it away
Like every word that you say
Like all the things that you're saving for a rainy day
And all the times that you wouldn't have it any other wayWell it's the day before our last day together
We realize it wasn't meant to last
We used to think that it would be forever
But we never thought forever'd go this fast
And now we're singing this song as loud as we can
As we drive to fast again and again
I don't wonder cause now I know where we stand
And I don't care if I ever see you again
