Sweet Survivor

Peter, Paul & Mary

You have asked me why the days fly by so quickly
And why each one feels no different from the last?
And you say that you are fearful for the future
And you have grown suspicious of the pastAnd you wonder if the dreams we shared together
Have abandoned us or we abandoned them
And you cast about and try to find new meaning
So that you can feel that closeness once againCarry on my sweet survivor
Carry on my lonely friend
Don't give up on the dream and don't you let it endCarry on my sweet survivor
Though you know that something's gone
For everything that matters, carry onYou remember when you felt each person mattered
When we all had to care for all was lost
But now you see believers turn to cynics
And you wonder was the struggle worth the costThen you see someone too young to know the difference
And a veil of isolation in their eyes
And inside you know you've got to leave them something
Or the hope for something better slowly diesCarry on my sweet survivor
Carry on my lonely friends
Don't give up on the dream and don't you let it endCarry on my sweet survivor
Though you know that something's gone
For everything that matters, carry onCarry on my sweet survivor
You've carried it so long
So it may come again, carry on
Carry on, carry on
