Something Wonderful

Revolting Cocks

I'm crawling in my head with the walking dead
I've got a cold sweat on my skin
I'm fighting back the demons in a waking dream
Where my weakness will become a sinI'm holding onto terror, it's my guiding light
It's gonna pull me out of my mind
A never ending telepathic testimony
For the fear that I feel insideSomething wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderfulHell is not a place, it's a game you play
And suffer every move you make
Possession is the prize in the enemy eyes
You pay for every chance you takeA soul is not a soul until it lives in a hole
With a hacked up life and limb
The pain that you find can make you feel so fine
The alienation's deadAt the back of your mind
Go to the other side
Hello, is anyone home?
But you've been left aloneUh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huhSomething wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderfulMaybe I'll submit to my own desire
Will the agony be too extreme?
Something deep inside pulled my legs wide open
And the whisper turned into a screamTook me by surprise when I heard my cries
Because I didn't recognize my voice
A schizophrenic call or a voodoo doll
Too terrified to make that choiceI've been stabbed in the back
By a maniac
And I thought it was me
But I didn't have the guts to believeUh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huhSomething wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh

Something wonderfulBeyond good and evil lie the future ghosts
That surround us like a ring of flames
Summoned here by innocents and fools alike
For the pleasure of the gameI wish to hell I was a stronger man
And I could heal just as quick as scar
But I'm weak when I'm in this deep
It's not a game anymore, it's gone too farI've been stabbed in the back
By a maniac
And I thought it was me
But I didn't have the guts to believeUh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Huh, huh, huh, huh, huh, huh, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huhSomething wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful, uh, huh
Something wonderful
