Diska

Bis

Hanging around in all the right bars
Could have taken this too far
Searching for the latest creep show
New bands are welcome oh noThis one man that sells the new beer
Won't drink too quick, won't make nothing
Sell, sell, sell the unit shifter
You won't take advantage of usIs it the next big thing?
Better than everything?
We've seen it all before
Are you the coolest band?
Yes, we were so unplanned
We've seen it all beforeGet your checkbooks on the table
Money talks, it's able
Blind us with the latest jargon
By this point most are too far goneWe know how to break the routine
Don't matter pressures of scene
Sell, sell, sell the unit shifter
You won't take advantage of usIs it the next big thing?
Better than everything?
We've seen it all before
Are you the coolest band?
Yes we were so unplanned
We've seen it all beforeYou're trying to be someone else
You're trying to be someone else but yourself
You're trying to be someone else
You're trying to be someone else but yourselfYou're trying to be someone else
You're trying to be someone else but yourself
You're trying to be someone else
You're trying to be someone else but yourself
But yourself, but yourselfIs it the next big thing?
Better than everything?
We've seen it all before
Are you the coolest band?
Yes we were so unplanned
We've seen it all beforeIs it the next big thing?
Better than everything?
We've seen it all before
Are you the coolest band?
Yes we were so unplanned

We've seen it all beforeConclusions
