

Citylights Forever

Sophie Hunger

In Berlin there is a project Waiting holding wearing apole and tucked and disposedAnd i wish there were two little dogs on the logs
So I could play with each otherThe question comes to my head
Is should I watch Monty Python like the memory of the dead
Millions and trillions who have never had any timeWhen a dream comes up empty
When I move I'm taught
When a think of a girl in the world
And no she won't be enoughAnd the prophet next door
Said the stone in your hand is Holding your hand
And I do understand
And I don't understand
I just wish I could Stand in the middle
Of a mountainCity lights foreverAnd now if there is God
And if there is not
Still I find myself hoping and pleading a lot
And then seeing Madonna showing her spots
I take a bow to the women in veilsWhen a dream comes up empty
When I move I am taught
When I think of a boy in the world
And no, he won't be enoughCitylights, Citylights Citylights foreverCi Ci Ci City lights
my City forever
