Tell Me Again

Jaci Velasquez

Today I had one of those days
Where every step I tried to take ended with me on my face.
My confidence crumbles like dust
Right now my mistakes are so much bigger than my trust.

Won't be the last time,
But it you don't mind

Tell me again
That I am loved
Tell me again
My heart cannot hear it enough

I know you're in control.
But the fear inside my head says something different to my soul
Only you can stop this noise
Come and drown out all my doubt
And let me hear your voice

I'm ashamed to even ask
It's been underlined
You have told me before
Now I'm asking you one more time

Tell me! Tell me! Tell me!
Tell me again
