

Jealous

Keke Palmer

[Intro]

Two up

Fuck who up?

I was sitting in the coup, watch the bitch pull up

Hate a nigga think he slick, bitch rick ruler

Tell her, if she tag me again she gon' see thriller[Chorus]

You say that you promise to love me, love me

That's what you said

But I see your shawty all on my IG

(She just play play)

If I didn't have so much going for me

I'd fuck you up for this jealousy

Bitch don't let this TV make you think that you know me[Verse 1]

Chi town, south side, Mudville bitch, what's good

(Know what I do)

I don't have to twist no fingers just know I'm good

(Know what I do)

You betta get beside her

'fore you catch me in the lineup, tied up

In a case I ain't got no business involved

(All because you in your feelings that we ain't what we were)

So tired of niggas appetite

Always wanna share the spotlight

My type is them boys that got a little street life

I still find

Hit a bitch the same time, give her that love

But nigga granted, I let you get up in the panties

You panic cause I'm moving on, you can't stand it

Fuck a virgo over one time, I leave you stranded

I'm past it

Ain't no hard feelings at all[Chorus]

You say that you promise to love me, love me

That's what you said

But I see your shawty all on my IG

(She just play play)

If I didn't have so much going for me

I'd fuck you up for this jealousy

Bitch don't let this TV make you think that you know me[Verse 2]

I know you ain't into her

(I know you ain't into her)
But she is the best option you could grab
Your insecurities have been revealed but you're not saying a thing (a thing)
No need to speak
She know you hitting my phone?
So sick, nigga please, what is it you want?
If you're taking her away (on vacation)
Then there ain't no need in texting me
I know she a thing for the thirsty
She gon' be the first one to let that slip
Tell that bitch don't come around here unless she ready for the shit
She ain't been on before[Chorus]
You say that you promise to love me, love me
That's what you said
But I see your shawty all on my IG
(She just play play)
If I didn't have so much going for me
I'd fuck you up for this jealousy
Bitch don't let this TV make you think that you know me[Chorus]
You say that you promise to love me, love me
That's what you said
But I see your shawty all on my IG
(She just play play)
If I didn't have so much going for me
I'd fuck you up for this jealousy
Bitch don't let this TV make you think that you know me
