

Dusk's Short Requiem (For an Old Day)

Echo Orbiter

Reclaim your name amidst the dusk
Clear the stain of time if you must
Learn to teach yourself the value of trust
Setting with the sun is yesterdayâ€™s lust
Lunaâ€™s adult trials transform it to love
Chip away the brain thatâ€™s covered in rust
Blow off the heart collecting dust
Breath canâ€™t clear off what requires wind gusts
That pass through you like your future discussed
Itâ€™s suddenly time to grow up
