

Sing To Me (Orchestra Version)

Delain

Happy tears fade fast
Sad tears tend to last
You've got your blood-stained heart
In your nicotine-stained hands
And your twenty-nine years
Did not help you pass
Oh, the roadkill, cheap thrill
Obstacle filled path
White lies, black dress
Brightest of darkness
You close your tearstained eyes
To our silver lined madness
After twenty-nine years
You might want to confess
That we have made
A fucked-up place
That I can not erase
Sing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
White lies, black heart
Tearing us apart
You breathe the frost-filled air
From my lungs to your lungs
After twenty-nine years
How much more to come?
Let, we have made
A fucked-up place
That I can not erase
Sing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
Happy tears fade fast
Sad tears tend to last
You've got a sad, sad song
Stuck in your aching head
And your twenty-nine years
Did not teach you that
Changing melodies
Will change your destiny at last
Now, we have made
A fucked-up place

We're trying to erase
EraseSing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
Sing to me
