Uh huh, uh, uhLive from NYC it's Q.B

The heavy weight champ female emcee

In all actuality they wanna be meThis chick running around with this stink ass gap

And them fake ass raps having panic attacks

You ain't a star and your record company know that

How you make all this money you just fart and blow it?I'm a business woman now so I'm not concerned

I'd bet on Lil' Cease before you and your firm

If this was back in the days I would've been snatched you

I'm getting money now, them bitches in the hood they can have youStop paying these niggas to write y'all shit For the right cream I'd write a hot sixteen

Better be careful what you say to me

That same shit you shit, I'mma make you sniffIt's the NOTORIOUS

You just lay down slow

It's the NOTORIOUS

You just lay down slow

It's the NOTORIOUS

You just lay down slow

Uh, uh huh, uh, uh

You dumb ass nigga

Rappers acting out the late Frank White's path

Once they get in jail they get fucked in the assNever snitch, never send a nigga to jail

I'd rather find him by a boat doing the dead man's float

We gangsters, real gangsters B

Gun in the green room up at B E TWe gangsters, real gangsters nigga

Kill you and cut the head off your babysitter

We gangsters, we gangsters bitch

Even more dangerous now we're filthy richIt's the NOTORIOUS

You just lay down slow

It's the NOTORIOUS You just lay down slowIt's the NOTORIOUS

You just lay down slow

Only one of us could rule

You see its sort of like being in schoolI'm Valedictorian y'all in the audience And I've got nine hundred and ninety nine votes

You got nine hundred and ninety nine notes You know bitch I'm worldwide

Can't you see?

Open your eyes
