

Wide Awake

Phil Wickham

Through the veil, we have come
You've paid the price, a sacrifice, of flesh and blood
Hearts ablaze, drawing close
The holy place now invades the human soul Wide awake, unashamed, in Your light
By Your grace, boldly running to Your side
Captivated, oh I am taken by everything You are
I want to be closer and closer and closer to Your heart
I want to be closer and closer and closer to Your heart Hope is here, love has won
With burning hearts, into Your arms
Oh God, we run
All my life and all my days
Holding nothing back, giving all I am
For Your great name Wide awake, unashamed in Your light
By Your grace, boldly running to Your side
Captivated, oh I am taken by everything You are
I want to be closer and closer and closer to Your heart
I want to be closer and closer and closer to Your heart
