

Walking In the Sunshine

Frank Sinatra

After the rain goes, people see rainbows
But I see rainbows when it storms above
So darling, is it any wonder I can laugh at thunder
Walking in the sunshine of your love Ten below zero, I'm such a hero
I never wear a muffler or a glove
While all the world has frosty noses
I'm knee-deep in roses
Walking in the sunshine of your love Just so you know dear, I'm gonna tell you
Your smile's my golden umbrella
Even the rain-out
Trouble and pain out of my heart And from the very start your tender affection in my direction
T'was like a lovely blessing from above
That's why I go around just beaming, wond'ring if I'm dreaming
Walking in the sunshine of your love After the rain goes, people see rainbows
But I see rainbows while it storms above
So baby, is it any wonder I can laugh at thunder
Walking in the sunshine of your love Ten below zero and I'm a hero
I never wear a muffler or a glove
While all the world got big red noses
I'm knee-deep in roses
Walking in the sunshine of your love Just so you know dear, I'm gonna tell you
Your smile's my golden umbrella
Even the rain-out
Trouble and pain out of my heart. And from the very start your affection in my direction
Was like a lovely blessing from above
That's why I go around just beaming, wond'ring if I'm dreaming
I'm walking, walking in the sunshine of your love
Yeah baby, you keep me nice and warm

Songwriters

MERRILL, BOB Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., MUSIC & MEDIA INT'L, INC.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>