Wolverines (Radio Thoreau mix)

The Residents

I didn't do it
So you'll let me leave, won't you?Out of towners and their children
Watched us when we went to kill some
Wolverines who tried to hide
Their babies but the puppies criedNo one succeeds
If they scatter their seeds
Where the wind and the weeds
Are pleasedThen the children went to pet
The baby animals who bit their fingers
Causing blood to blow
Around like rosebuds in the snowI didn't do it
So you'll let me leave, won't you?No one succeeds
If they scatter their seeds
Where the wind and the weeds
Are pleasedNo one succeeds
If they scatter their seeds
Where the wind and the weeds
Are pleased
