

Days Turn Blue To Gray

Machine Head

Oh, thou have fathered
Son and daughter
Doth beget, yet raised not bother
Paralyzed your children lives
Withered vines of family tiesSelf destruction
Makes him functionCrayons and clay
Days turn blue to gray
An' days turn blue to grayOh, seventeen when Family begin'
Drinkin', fightin', heroin
Unquenchable addictions call
Responsible to none above allSelf destruction
Makes him functionCrayons and clay
An' days turn blue to gray
An' days turn blue to grayLest I taste
It's sweet grapes
Glass to tongue
Across it tips
Cross my lips
Swallow it downPlease
Won't you love me?
Please help me see
What did I do?
Did I hurt you?And now that you're gone
Emptiness lives on
The guilt's all I feel
No closureFather
Mother
Fucker
No closureNo, no, no, noThe strings of my hearts
You pulled on endlessly
This twine is severed
With tragedyFather
Mother
Destroyer
Destroy herYour self destruction
What made you feel alive?
Your self destruction

Of your children's lives, lives
