I Want You

Paris Hilton

J RExcuse me
I think I've seen you on the dance floor
Excuse me
I think they're playing one of our songsI've seen you
You've been here a lotta times
And you've been on my mind
'Cause baby, you're just so damn fineWhat do you say?
What will it take
To make you see that I'm not playing?I want you
And I think you should know
I want you
And I won't let you go'Cause I'm the kinda girl
Who likes to tell you what I want in life
I'll get right up in your face
Won't you like that anyway?I want you
So before you go home
And you leave here alone
I thought you should knowThe night's young and baby
I'm just getting started
So don't go
'Cause I'm feeling open heartedAnd I could Give you everything you need
You'd be living in a dream
If you'll be waking up next to meGimme a chance
How about a dance?
I promise you, you won't regret itI want you
And I think you should know
I want you
And I won't let you go'Cause I'm the kinda girl
Who likes to tell you what I want in life
I'll get right up in your face
Won't you like that anyway?I want you
So before you go home
And you leave here alone
I thought you should knowWhen you're looking like that
And I'm feeling like this
You make my head spin around
And I want a kissWhen you're looking like that
And I'm feeling like this

You make my head spin around
And I want a kissWhat do you say?
What will it take
To make you see that I'm not playing?I want you
And I think you should know
I want you
And I won't let you go'Cause I'm the kinda girl
Who likes to tell you what I want in life
I'll get right up in your face
Won't you like that anyway?I want you
So before you go home
And you leave here alone
I thought you should knowI want you
I want you
I want you
I want you
