

Veniality (Previously Unreleased Bonus Track)

Epica

Searching for what she can't find
For her own peace of mind She can't forgive, nor forget the past These ineffable feelings and hurt that last evermore Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past Don't enthrall yourself, let the penance begin You've got to open your heart to see the confinement Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past (2x) It seems so futile, forgiveness , your freedom the present state of veniality Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past (3x) Search for the light , and then you'll find your own peace of mind
