

Well Well Well

Lucinda Williams

Well, well, well, here it is again
The way I feel is down but then
You know if you toss a stone in a river
It sinks to the bottom, it won't rise up eitherHey, hey, hey, this here's a test
And it may not be the last
I tell you what I have to wonder
When I get lost and I end up yonderHuh, huh, huh, ain't this a shame
Don't this beat all you've ever seen
Just when I thought I was getting it up there
Things went and got a whole lot tougherMy, my, my, how do you figure
The reason why we always differ
But hey now, you know what I mean
If you hang around trash you can't come out cleanWell, well, well, here it is again
The way I feel is down but then
You know if you toss a stone in a river
It sinks to the bottom, it won't rise up eitherWell, well, well
Hey, hey, hey
Huh, huh, huh
My, my, my
