

The Orange Grass Special

Beachwood Sparks

God bless the man who loves his woman
So much he never sees her cry
Til that dark day when she finds out
Her poor mamma up and died
God bless the woman who loves her man so
So much she never sees him sad
Til that dark day when he finds out
That he lost his dear old dad
Bless the earth, bless the heaven
And the oceans dark and deep
Bless the children when they lay down
To pray the Lord their soul to keep
