

Human

Daughter

Woken up like an animal
Teeth ready for sinking
My mind's lost in bleak vision
I tried to escape but keep sinking Limbs lost to a dead wait steak
Skull cage like a prison
And he has lost faith to ever see again
So may he once taught of me then Underneath the skin there's a human Buried deep within there's a human
And despite everything I'm still human
But I think I'm dying here Waking up like an animal
I'm all ready for healing
My mind's lost with nightmares streaming
Waking up (kicking screaming) Take me out of this place I'm in Break me out of this shale case I'm in Underneath the skin there's a human Buried deep within there's a human
And despite everything I'm still human I think that I'm still human Underneath the skin there's a human
Buried deep within there's a human
And despite everything I'm still human
But I think I'm dying here
