

He Don't Love Me (Remix)

Jackie Neal

Oh shucks.

You know ladies, this the thing about men

You know they always wanna leave you, but they always seem to come back again,
But this particular time, I heard through the grapevine that he didnt want me anymore,

So ima take it how it come baby

I wanna tell a story, check this out:

For the last 7 years, I put my life on hold thinking you gon love me, but you always seem like you gotta go, loving another woman while Im loving you, I cant take it no more, so I gotta cut you looseHe dont love me, aw, aw no he dont, but he cant stand to see me with another man,

I aint lying, not this time,

He dont want me, aw, aw no he dont, but cant stand to see me with another man,
That aint right, that aint right,I woke up this morning with a strange, strange feeling,

I checked my answering service "will you marry me,

It was you on the other line willing to be my husband and Ill be your wife,
But things wont change; you continue to stay gone all nightHe dont love me, aw, aw no he dont, but he cant stand to see me with another man,

I aint lying, not this time,

He dont want me, aw, aw no he dont, but cant stand to see me with another man,
That aint right, that aint rightI finally found somebody who loves me like I loved you,

So don't get mad at me baby for what Im about to say and do,
He put a ring on my finger, now youre mad at the world, but you cant go stepping out, stepping in, stepping in, stepping out, I dont wanna be your girlHe dont love me, aw, aw no he dont, but he cant stand to see me with another man,

I aint lying, not this time,

He dont want me, aw, aw no he dont, but cant stand to see me with another man,

That aint right, that aint right

I finally found somebody who aint got nobody, that needs somebody cause everybody needs somebody.
