Rock and Roll

Dio

If they take away your song
You can finally hear the voices
Of the ones that don't belongIn the face of the rising wind
We all sing Gloria
Is there flame without fire
Most unlikelyIf you're there when the walls come down
We all sing warrior
Is there sight without sound
Most unlikelyBut we got rock & roll
Rock & roll
Take me anywhereRock & roll
Rock & roll
Is there someone there
Rock & rollOn the edge of the last goodbye
We all sing warrior
Ah, the brave never die
Most unlikelyHey, send your heroes of to war
But whisper in their ear
Never cross the song police
They can tell you what you're gonna hear againFor the sake of the left behind
We all sing Gloria
Soon forgotten by time
So unlikely'Cause we got rock & roll
Rock & roll
Take you anywhereRock & roll
Rock & roll
Someone's always there
Rock & rollBring me anywhere
Rock & roll
Rock & rollSomeone's always there
Rock & roll
Rock & roll me, ahRock & roll
Rock & rollRock & roll
Rock & roll
