

What You Want

Bombay Bicycle Club

If I gotta ride like you want eating up whatever you got Keep my lies up, you know oh you force it all, oh you need it all Trying to keep a face up tonight even though the guy's got you right Coming off the wrong side, you know

oh you force it all You start it right, You tread so light
You tease this love, You care enough You can rearrange me now if we wait we can make it somehow Well what you want, what you want anything you want
