Help

Erica Campbell Feat. Lecrae

When your world comes crashing down
Don't waste no time
Know this world's big enough for you and me
'Cause when you need someone to hold
There's always someone around
Help, help them to help you
Help, help them to help you
'Cause when you're down, down, down
Stand up again, breathe in
And when you're down, down, down
Come up again, breathe in
When you feel you're tumblin' down
Now don't you worry
'Cause you'll be back up on your feet again
And when you need someone to hold
There's always someone around
Help, help them to help you
Help, help them to help you
'Cause when you're down, down, down
Come up again, breathe in
Yeah, when you're down, down, down
Stand up again, hold on
Soon your eyes will see the sun, I believe in love
Is it worth the tears you cry, what about the love
Just leave the past behind, do you believe in love
You are never too far gone to try
To try yes, try, yeah, just try
So when you're down, down, down
Stand up again, breathe in, breathe in
And when you're down, down, down
Come up again, hold on, hold on Breathe in, what you're waiting for Breathe in, you are never too far gone to try
Breathe in, you, what you're waiting for
Breathe in, soon your eyes will see the sun again
And again and again
Soon your eyes will see the sun again
And again and again
