Kyshera

Welcome to history, where judgements calling all of us
To see the world we accepted
If we let the servants hijack the palace
Then who can we really blame?

Enter humanity, endlessly exploitable
It's written in our design
To be decent, to be naive & impressionable
So the damaged few always win

Beware a leader of any kind
We must do it ourselves

We the majority
Are the authority
In natures democracy
If we just set eachother free

Welcome to history, where we will see the lies of now
But will we not see the pattern?
Old enemies with ever friendly faces still
Take us around again

We the majority
Are the authority
In natures democracy
If we just set eachother free

Yeah, we've got the numbers
Yeah, we've got the power
Yeah, we've got eachother
It's only a choice

No votes will save us from the system
We must do it ourselves

We the majority
Are the authority
In natures democracy

If we just set eachother free

Yeah, we've got the numbers
Yeah, we've got the power
Yeah, we've got eachother
It's only a choice
