

Burnin' Up

A Flock of Seagulls

You cut me to the wire, you shook me to the bone
My object of desire, don't leave my heart alone
With one look in your eyes, I saw the raging fire
I'm burnin' up, I'm burnin' up with such desire
Took one step in the dark, across forbidden lines
Into the danger zone, you took my mind
But you make me feel like I'm on fire
You make me feel like I'm alive
Love knocked me to the floor, pinned me up against the wall
You said you play with fire, you're gonna fall
I took one look in your eyes, across the danger line
Now I'm burnin' up, love's blind
You played with fire, you're gonna burn
You played with fire, you're gonna learn
(You're gonna learn) I'm burnin' up, I'm burnin' up
You played with fire, you're gonna burn
