

Knock Me Out (feat. Grace Slick)

Linda Perry

You knocked me out
You bit my lip
You held me down
And kept me sober
Through all this time
With no regret
I guess that's just the way I liked it
Oooh.....Oh... oh...Maybe
When I'm free
I'll realize all I really wanted
To share all the peace
Something that I never wanted So wait
Don't go
Seems as though
It's getting scary
So please
Don't you go
Wait
Don't you go You knocked me out
I can never be the same
I pushed you over
And here we will remain Confusion new
To you, and nothing's right
Nobody but you has to Hold on to the fight
Just before you cry It won't change you
It won't change me
And I don't even wonder why Won't touch
Feel so much And life
Yeah we cry
I know
Baby I know But fate
I'm waking
I feel
I touch
I breathe
I cry
I know this So wait
Oooh... Wait

oh... I said please
Smile just before you cry
Don't you go
You knocked me out
I can never be the same
I pushed you over
But here we still remain
You knocked me out
I can never be the same
Oh.....I can take the fight
But don't
Don't you turn away
You knocked me out
You bit my lip
You held me down and kept me sober oooh....oh...
