Every Day's a Holiday

The JaneDear Girls

These days everybody's chasin' money
But I say you got nothin' if you ain't happy
Everything I own's in a suitcase in my hand, yeah
I've learned how to live by livin' right where I landSo come on sing along with this song
Gotta rock it on the radio, takes you where you wanna go
There's a new state of mind you can find
Where the sun shines all the time and every day's a holidayFreeway is backed up a month of Sundays
But there's an unpaved road we've never taken callin' our name
We're gonna leave all the worries of the world behind
Before you know it, everybody's gonna be in lineSo come on sing along with this song
Gotta rock it on the radio, takes you where you wanna go
There's a new state of mind you can find
Where the sun shines all the time and every day's a holidayHey, hey, heyOkay, so maybe I'm a little crazy
But I say you got nothin' if you ain't happySo come on sing along with this song
Gotta rock it on the radio, takes you where you wanna go
There's a new state of mind you can find
Where the sun shines all the time and every day's a holidaySo come on sing along with my song
Gotta rock it on the radio, takes you where you wanna go
Where the sun shines all the time and every day's a holidayCome on everybody, it's a holiday!
