

It's a War

Blackbird Blackbird

Where are you waiting, what are you waiting, waiting for?
Where are you waiting, what are you waiting, waiting for?
You were only the summer, but your everyone's world
Everyone's world

It's a war, it's a war, it's a war
The? sun coming clear
It's a war, it's a war, it's a war
Where do you go where nobody knows
Where are you waiting, what are you waiting, waiting for?
Where are you waiting, what are you waiting for, waiting for Good lord what are you waiting for?
