Without you girl by my side
You know me better than myself

Girl we see life out of eyes
With you love could never pass me byWhen the rain stops falling
When the sun stops shining

Gonna make me stop kissing your face
There's no agenda there's no lie
Our love is pure, makes a man wanna cry
There's something that I never ever felt before
When 2 became 1, I'm not hopeless any moreGirl you do anything for me
Never had so much love set me free
We don't pretend to be in love
With you there's nothing that I'm scared of
My heart is dead when your away
I love you more than life, that's all I got to sayWhen the rain stops falling
When the sun stops shining
