

If I'm Unworthy

Blake Mills

I've found a new meaning
For the oldest words in use
Now I no longer ask myself
What have I got to lose
If I'm unworthy of the power I own over you
This line of thinking
The wonders it can induce
I'm twisted in the sheets now
Look what your love can do
What if I'm unworthy of the power I own over you
Time before was wasted
But with you life is not long enough
I'll wrap you in my arms babe
I hope they'll be strong enough
My time before was wasted
But with you life's just not long enough
I'll wrap you in my arms babe
See if they're strong enough
What if I'm unworthy of the power I own over you
