Shore Leave

Catatonia

From London to Lisbon
And all points between
Find people to lean on
And one man to pleaseWe all need someone
We all need something
We all need?I'm lustless, lifeless
The scent of my skin
It means nothing without you
That's where it beginsWe all need someone
We all need something
We all need? We all need?Get out for your sakes
Do you want it?
No promises are spoken
Take it or leave it, do you like it?And no man's heart gets broken
One day to another
I'm head over heels
One room to another
It sets the same sceneWe all need someone
We all need something
We all need? We all need?Every man for himself
Just for a little while
Every man for himself
Just for a short whileYou could came around
We could fool around and get down
It's the way it could beOh, from London to Lisbon
I'm head over heels
Take it or leave it
Just come as you pleaseWe all need someone
Somewhere, somehow
