

Diamonds Aren't So Hard

Tony Banks

And diamonds aren't so hard to find
Don't let it bring you down
Your woman's gone and left you
The tax man's here he's knocking on your door, oh
Don't let it bring you down
Your brand new house is burning
They're dumping toxic waste in your backyard, oh
Your next door neighbor's gone and won the pools
The life's so bad you wish that it was all over, over
You and I
Could leave this all behind
Dream a little
Leave ourselves behind
Come with me where dragons rule the air
And diamonds aren't so hard to find
And come what may heroes never fail
And time stands still, no matter if you're young or old
Don't let it bring you down
Nothing lasts for ever
Even female movie stars grow old, oh
We try to break the rules and never age
We try so hard but everything's in vain
Then one day you wake and find that it's all over, over
You and I
Could leave this all behind
Dream a little
Leave ourselves behind
Come with me where dragons rule the air
And diamonds aren't so hard to find
And come what may heroes never fail
And time stands still no matter if you're young or old
So come with me where dragons rule the air
And diamonds aren't so hard to find

Songwriters

Banks Anthony
Published by

ANTHONY BANKS, LTD.; HIDDEN PUN MUSIC, INC. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>