

Running

Joni

I'm always running, running, running, running, round
I'm always running, running, running, running, round
And if I stop to think I'll just go down, down, down
So I'm always running, running, running, running, round I keep trying to run from what's good
Opening wounds just to see blood
I know that's only my dark cloud
But I can make it rain so much we both drown
You pull me, pull me, pull me, back to the ground
But then you pull me, pull me, pull me, back to the ground And that's why all doors open to you
Because you love my dark and light I can start anew
But I want you, I want you, want you, want you to watch me
Go down, down, down, down on you
I'm always running, running, running, running, round, round, round
I'm always running, running, running, running, round
And if I stop to think I'll just go way down, down, down, down, down, down, down
So I'm always running, running, running, running, round
