

Glorious

Izzy Bizu

(Glorious, she's glorious, she's glorious, she's glorious) Don't get it twisted
You're just ridiculous
I met you yesterday
Now you're sloppy seconds
Yes, she can have it
Never let you go to waste
Never been the type to fight for a man
And she's doing anything that she can
Watching from a distance
She's walking around the room with her fishnets on I thought that you should know
Before you watch her glow
I don't mind if you admire
Just don't let me go
Got me caught in the middle
And it hurts just a little
It's obvious, it's glorious
I lie awake on my pillow
And it fills me with sorrow
It's obvious, it's glorious
Oh no, oh no, ohh no
But it's obvious, it's glorious
Glorious, glorious, glorious I'm not complaining
This is frustrating
There's no need for grief
But we can have what we're hungry for
Crave anything that's not yours
I understand it
But I can't handle it
There's no need to give me grief
But we can have what we're hungry for
Crave anything that's not yours I thought that you should know
Before you watch her glow
I don't mind if you admire
Just don't let me go
Got me caught in the middle
And it hurts just a little
It's obvious, it's glorious
I lie awake on my pillow
And it fills me with sorrow

It's obvious, it's glorious
Oh no, oh no, ohh no
But it's obvious, it's glorious
Glorious, glorious, glorious All I know you're better with each other
You're treading water in my eyes
All I know you're better with each other
You're treading water in my eyes Why (Ah ha it's glorious, ah ha she's glorious, ah ha she's glorious, ah ha)
Got me caught in the middle
And it hurts just a little
It's obvious, it's glorious
I lie awake on my pillow
And it fills me with sorrow
It's obvious, it's glorious
Oh no, oh no, ohh no
But it's obvious, it's glorious
Glorious, glorious, glorious (It's glorious, she's glorious, she's glorious, she's glorious)
