

Deadmen

Far From Alaska

Say, whatever you might say
Will never ever hurt a man
Who truly faced deathEmbrace, it's nothing more than waste
If lifetime is for playing my friend
Get better at the gameMan, it's all a shame
Don't pity-look me
when I'm not empty handed like you
Man, it's all a shame
Don't pity-look me
when I'm not empty handedha!Hey! whatever you might say
Will never ever hurt a man
Who truly faced deathEmbrace, it's nothing more than waste
If lifetime is for playing my friend
Get better at the gameGot to pay your debt before this story fades away
'Ha dada Ha', hard is brightening the past Better lie and leave behind, tomorrow looks so clear
'Ha dada Ha', if you're sorry I forgive youDance, we're called "The Deadmen"
No matter how deep we are
We'll see the sun again
