

The Last Mall

Steely Dan

Attention all shoppers
It's Cancellation Day
Yes the Big Adios
Is just a few hours awayIt's last call
To do your shopping
At the last mallYou'll need the tools for survival
And the medicine for the blues
The sweet treats and surprises
For the little buckaroosIt's last call
To do your shopping
At the last mallWe've got a sweetheart Sunset Special
And all of the standard stuff
'Cause in the morningthat gospel morning
You'll have to do for yourself when the going gets toughRoll your cart back up the aisle
Kiss the checkout girls goodbye
Ride the ramp to the freeway
Beneath the blood orange skyIt's last call
To do your shopping
At the last mall
