Loreen

Sandra

Take a walk
On a Sunday mornin'
Have a talk
Be silent insideDid you only want the shelter?
What is turnin' around your mind?Loreen, Loreen
They are down on you
Could you ever find again
Just what you've been before?Loreen, Loreen
You're so down and blue
It's gettin' better everyday
But you're about to lose your wayTake a walk
And I tail behind you
Arrange your thoughts
Look over your lifeAnd I know what you're recitin'
What is turnin' around your mindLoreen, Loreen
They are down on you
Could you ever find again
Just what you've been before?Loreen, Loreen
You're so down and blue
It's gettin' better everyday
But you're about to lose your wayLoreen, Loreen
They are down on you
Could you ever find again
Just what you've been before?Loreen, Loreen
You're so down and blue
It's gettin' better everyday
But you're about to lose your way
