I Don't Need To Know

City And Colour

I don't need to know
Why the oceans blue or how the flowers grow
I dont need to live...
Waiting on someone to forgive me for my sins
Like my father before...
Me im a working man, a working man
But i dont need to beleive...
In the something that won't save my sanity
No i dont need
I dont need to know
No i dont need to knoooow
I dont need to knooow
I dont need to knooow
I dont want to live...

In a world where faces change from day to day
And i dont want my life to be...
Soo full of doubt and misery
The years now pass with out a trace
Its something that i am learning to embrace
How most fun nights are spent awake
Thinking about how i dont want to live that way
No i dont want i dont want to live
No i dont want to live
I dont want to live
I dont want to live
I dont know what ive been told
But if you dont beleive the devil owns your soul
Well if this is the truth then to hell i go
'Cause i dont need to know
