

Ready To Burn

Krokus

It's gettin' so late now, I'm headin' for the city
I've got a date and she's so pretty
Jump in my car and no hitchin' for a ride
Gonna hit that high speed all the timeAhh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?Ahh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?She's got chrome wire wheels, bucket seats made of leather
She's as tough as steel and light as a feather
If you feel the power as you touch the pedal
She's as hot as hell, she's real heavy metalAhh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?Ahh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?She's got plenty of power, she feels real good
Well, put together for the neighborhoodAhh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?Ahh, ha, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?Ahh, ha, ha
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready, ready to burn?
Are you ready?
Hit the road, Jack
