

I Want Some More

Colin Blunstone

I WANT SOME MORE

Blunstone I'm sittin' all alone on a sunny summer afternoon
Sittin' alone with nothing to do
Oh people feel bizarre if I sit by myself
They don't know that I'm waiting for you. And I just will be waitin' all I'm livin' for Oh I want some more. Now I know I haven't known you for long
Just a couple of days since we met
Whether it's right or whether it's wrong
It's the closest I got to it yet.
And I just will be waitin' all I'm livin' for
I, oh I want some more.
Sit back and worrying here for the day
Back to the wall on my knees
Whether you come or whether you don't
With my back to the wall. Ooh that's fine.
