

How You Feel (Rolling Stone Original Version)

Unwritten Law

I want
I know
I see just how you feel
But baby
You got a ticket to ride And if you want me
Got's to let me know
'cause it's so hard to let you go Well, I've been around this block
Ten thousand times
So just patch me
Just one more time But if you want me
Gots to let me know
'cause it's so hard to let you go I've got one life to live in
So won't you stop and listen?
Can't keep my head from spinning all around you I want
I know
I've seen just how you been
And your livin' and sinnin' starts runnin' thin But if you want me
Got's to take it slow
'cause it's so hard to let you go I've got one life to live in
So won't you stop and listen?
Can't keep my head from spinning all around you
And if you see me slippin'
Just keep my head from hittin'
I'd stop the world from spinning all around you But I'm frustrated
So frustrated
Seems like I've been here before
But I'm frustrated
So frustrated, yeah
Seems like I've been here before So as the story goes
You know it well
And motherfuckers
It's one to tell But if you want me
Got's to let me know
'cause it's so hard to let you go
