

Ambush

Heart

You're distant honey, you're Mr. Cool
You lock up your feelings, nobody's fool
You're facing the world
With your fist clenched tight
Tough guy, tough guy facing the fight
Don't forget to remember
She's coming up in back
Even you surrender
Surrender to her sweet attack
Ambush, ambush, come from behind
Ambush, ambush, capture your mind
Ambush, ambush, I'm in disguise
Ambush, ambush, take you by surprise
When you don't expect it
That's when she appear
Whisper your fancy, licking your ear
She put her arms around you an' give a little squeeze
One little taste will bring you to your knees
The way she touch, is almost too much
When she lay
Lay that claim, lay that claim
You beg, begging her name
Ambush, ambush, come from behind
Ambush, ambush, capture your mind
Ambush, ambush, I'm in disguise
Ambush, ambush, take you by surprise
I'm telling you right up front now
You're the prisoner
She do what she want oh
Ambush, ambush, come from behind
Ambush, ambush, capture your mind
Ambush, ambush, I'm in disguise
Ambush, ambush, take you by surprise
