

Believing Is Seeing

Sabrina Starke

It all starts in the mind, then the heart follows
I see the shapes and all the outlines. Right at my fingertips
I don't worry about the outcome. If it should thy will be done.
With my eyes closed I'm working on my masterpiece Believing is seeing
Manifest and keep on dreaming
Cause the picture that's here so clear in front of me
I see my world in this magic place
Surrounded by the dreams I create show your love
One time for you mind.
Two times if you dare to try
It all starts in the mind
See the rainbows and the pot of gold
I love it more than you could ever know
I'm in charge of my life. Only I can shape and mold this right.
Planting seeds and wait for all this beauty to unfold Believing is seeing
Manifest and keep on dreaming
Cause the picture that's here so clear in front of me
I see my world in this magic place
Surrounded by the dreams I create show your love
One time for you mind
Two times if you dare to try I dedicate this to the dreamers, the seekers, truth believers
Can't you see it?
In the name of love. I am dedicated cause
Believing is seeing
Manifest and keep on dreaming
Cause the picture I see so clear in front of me
I see my world in this magic place
Surrounded by the dreams I create
It all starts in the mind
