

Wolves

Langhorne Slim & The Law

Got my money on that old blind horse
She can't see but she knows the course I know some people who have seen it all
Yet their hearts beat behind walls I'm tough enough to run with the bulls
Yet I'm too gentle to live amongst the wolves Came for the passion came for the truth
The sweat and the blood the piss and the proof I know some people who are so smart
Yet they built pillars around their hearts I'm tough enough to run with the bulls
Yet I'm too gentle
Mmmhmmm, mmmhmm,
To live amongst the wolves Ohhhhhooo, ohhhoooo, Seen you're vulnerable I've kissed your cheek
Seen the way you walk down my street Tell me why you wanna act so hard
We're both knowing it. who you are You're so scared to play the fool
I'm too gentle,
To live amongst the wolves. I'm tough enough to run with the bulls
And I'm too gentle
Mhmm, mhmmm, mhmmm
To live amongst the wolves.
